

A Pair of Steel Walter Daum Ortelsburg Bottle Boxes

Price:

Dimensions:

Width: 38 cm

Depth: 38 cm

Overall height with handles: 19 cm

Height without handles: 12 cm

Dimensions of the bottle compartment: 7.3 x 7.3 cm

Weight of 1 piece: 4 kg

DESCRIPTION

A pair of original German steel bottle boxes from the turn of the 20s and 30s of the 20th century. The boxes come from the brewery of Walter Daum located in the former town of Ortelsburg - the present name is Szczytno in Poland.

It was the old castle brewery of Fryderyk Daum taken over in 1906 by Walter Daum.

CONSTRUCTION

Solid steel construction combined with rivets, profiled bottom, two large transport handles, 25 compartments per bottle.

RANGE OF RENOVATION

The boxes have undergone a sandblasting process and then covered with a layer of a very resistant to mechanical damages the powder coating.