

Maritime On-Board Telephone

Price:

Dimensions:

Overall height: 40 cm
Overall width: 21 cm
Overall depth: 26 cm
Weight: 6.5 kg

PRIMARY USE

A maritime on-board telephone was used for internal communication on board of a ship or a submarine.

Manufacturer: C.Y.D. Russia

Production: 1970s

CONSTRUCTION

Solid case made of high-pressure die-cast aluminum. Inside, there is an induction coil activated by a crank. During manual charging, the indicator on the front panel lights in orange. The camera is equipped with two headphones - basic and a receiver. On the upper part, there is a steel bell canopy. The whole is covered with original gray paint. The phone has three mounting brackets. The set includes the camera's "passport" and a diagram.