

Military Field Spotlight on a Tripod

Price:

Dimensions:

Diameter of the reflector: 30 cm

Depth of the reflector: 36 cm

The minimum height: 135 cm

Maximum height: 226 cm

Weight of the set: 13 kg

PRIMARY USE

A military spotlight from the 1960s, which was a part of the Polish army equipment. It was used to illuminate field hospitals, command posts, temporary field logistic centers and offices.

CONSTRUCTION

The lamp body is made of pressed aluminum sheet. Inside, there is a glass prismatic reflector and a bulb holder for thread E 27. The reflector is fixed to a steel handle with the possibility of adjusting the angle of inclination. The body is covered with green military paint.

Included, an original folding film tripod from the 1960s, equipped with three wheels with brakes and a mechanism for adjusting the height operated by a crank. Maximum load 40 kg.