

OMP-300 Explosion-proof Lamp Raw

Price:

Dimensions:

Height: 47 cm

Diameter: 25 cm

Weight: 6.2 kg

PRIMARY USE

The OMP 300 lamp was designed to illuminate factory and industrial rooms where there was a risk of gas and steam explosions. Its' structure provided protection against dust and water.

Manufacturer: ZAOS Zakłady Sprzętu Oświetleniowego in Wilkasy near Giżycko

Time period: 1970s

CONSTRUCTION

The lamp body and a junction box are made of aluminum as pressure casting, transparent glass cover made of 12 mm thick glass covered with steel protective mesh. The lamp is designed to install a power supply on the track or at the end. Bulb with E27 base, maximum wattage 300 W.

Warning:

The pictures of the product show an example copy. Items from a given category have different marks of use, the so called "patina of time" and visually differ in their appearance. While executing the order, we choose a purchased item randomly.